FAITH

Many so often ask, "What is faith?" Let us not say, "What is faith?" But rather say, "What faith is." Faith is the positive appropriation of the Word of God, never negative.

One definition which has been given of faith is - "Simple dependence upon God." This is so very true, and yet such a time-consuming lesson for many of us to learn; for our God-dependence only begins when self-dependence ends.

Faith must always be based upon fact. "What fact does our faith stand upon," you ask. The eternal fact of the redeeming death and resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Faith, unless established upon Scriptural fact, is no more than speculation or presumption. However, faith which stands on the facts of the Word of God makes real to our lives things not seen.

The following are things which often are mistaken for faith: PROBABILITIES - Have nothing to do with faith. Faith comes on the scene when that which was probable is long past.

APPEARANCES - Are not to be taken into consideration. But, rather, what has the Word of God to say in regard to the matter?

IMPRESSIONS OR FEELINGS - Have nothing to do with faith, regardless of how strong or weak. Faith has to do with the Word of God. Impressions or feelings have to do with your present condition.

We can trust in, depend on, or have faith in, a person only to the extent that we know Him. So let us, therefore, STUDY the Word of God and learn of HIM so that our FAITH IN GOD might be perfected.

Chapter 6

In this chapter we are taught the true way of sanctification. We are not under commandments and laws saying, "Touch not; taste not; handle not," or "Don't do this, or don't do that"; for human nature cannot be changed by restrictions. We cannot keep the old tree (sinful nature) from bearing fruit by simply building a fence around it. The Word of God goes deeper than that - even to the root - and cuts down the tree. Christ Identified Himself with us in our sin, and died In our stead. But, in God's provision of grace, He reckons that we also died with Christ - were cut off with Him as the old creation - but were raised up together with Him in the new creation. Identification is the main thought in this chapter.

1. Chapter 5 shows our deliverance from the penalty and guilt of sin.

2. If because of our sin God was able to manifest His grace, should we continue in sin that His grace might continue to abound?

12. What do these verses mean to you in regard to daily victories?
13. What twofold reckoning must there be in our lives?
14. If the old nature was eradicated, as some teach, would reckoning be necessary?
15. Though our old man, as to God's provision, was crucified almost two thousand years ago, are we now dead?
Explain your answer. Consider Galatians 2:20.
16. What are we now in the hand of God?
17. Who becomes our new Master instead of sin? Verse 13.
18. How do we obey from the heart the doctrine of water baptism?
19. What are the wages of sin?
20. Do we earn eternal life by good or righteous deeds? Explain.

The following are fundamental truths which serve as a foundation of an spiritual growth. These truths must be dealt with in our lives before we can ever live in the realm of victory over the flesh as spoken of in this chapter.

1. YOU ARE BORN ANEW IN CHRIST JESUS.

"Born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever" -

I Peter 1:23

2. YOU ARE ACCEPTED IN CHRIST.

The Father now accepts us fully in His Son.

"To the praise of the glory of His grace wherein He hath made us accepted in the Beloved" -

Ephesians 1:6

3. YOU ARE ETERNALLY SECURED IN CHRIST.

"Your life is hid with Christ in God" - Colossians 3:3

4. YOU ARE POSITIONED IN CHRIST.

"God ... hath quickened us together with Christ ... and hath raised us up together and made us to sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus" -
Ephesians 2:4-6

Chapter 7

Notice the three arguments (chapters 6 and 7) against the question -
"Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?"

(a) We died in the old Adam, and arose in Christ -

A NEW CREATION - New Life,

(b) We left the employ of our old boss, sin, and we have -

A NEW MASTER - New Work.

(c) Our old husband died, and we have -

A NEW HUSBAND - New Fruit.

1. What natural illustration does Paul employ here to symbolize spiritual truth?
2. In view of this portion of the law that Paul cites, how may the woman who has a husband be free from his claim?

20. Like Paul, what condition do many believers find themselves in today? Verse 18.
21. Who is the inward man that delights in the will of God?
22. What despairing cry goes up from the one who is having this conflict within?
23. The truth of chapter 6 is judicial; that of chapter 7 is experimental. What is the only way of deliverance from the power of sin, and of the law?

Paul in this chapter, has been relating the up and down experience of his own life, prior to coming into chapter 8. Notice the "me's," "my's" and "I's" are gone and he is talking about the Spirit. This is the place we must come to in our Christian experience, where we get rid of the "I" life and the struggle with "I" and the Spirit takes over and is now in control.

The Holy Spirit has been mentioned only once thus far in our study - 5:5; the reason being that most of the truth dealt with up to this point has been "the provision of the Gospel," and "the experience of failure." Now in in chapter 8, we enter into "the experience of victory" and the Holy Spirit is mentioned at least fourteen times. His power and Presence saturate the whole chapter.

ROMANS Chapter 16

Before studying this chapter, we would like to bring to your attention several points which cause us to believe that verses 1-20 of this chapter rightly belong to the Epistle to the Ephesians. We will not attempt to explain how or why God allowed such an apparent blunder to be made by the compilers of the Scripture; however, we do feel that these particular points are noteworthy and should be considered in the study of this chapter

A. Aquila and Priscilla had a church in their home at Ephesus (Acts 18:18-28), and we find no hint in the Scripture that they moved back to Rome, from which they originally came. They apparently were still in Ephesus when Paul wrote his last epistle to Timothy, who is believed to have been in Ephesus at that time. II Timothy 4:19. Consider also II Timothy 1:16-18 and II Corinthians 16:19.

B. Epaenetus, of verse five, was the firstfruits of Asia, as many translations render, rather than Achaia. In Paul's letter to Corinth, which was in Achaia, he speaks of the firstfruits of that region being the house of Stephanas, not that of Epaenetus. I Corinthians 16:15.

C. Paul had never been to Rome (Romans 1: 13) and yet he greets those mentioned in this chapter as if they are very close friends, not just ones he had met on occasion in his journeys.

D. Many of those greeted in this chapter were already established in the Lord, while the saints at Rome had not yet heard Paul's Gospel, but were strangers to him.

E. The warning of verse 17 in this chapter seems to be a repeat of the warning that Paul gave to the elders of Ephesus in Acts 20:29 and 30, concerning those who would arise from among them speaking perverse things.

F. Note 16:20, "The God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly." For one to be able to comprehend the full impact of this statement, one must realize that his place is with Christ seated in the heavenlies. This glorious truth is found in the letter to the Ephesians. It is the Ephesian saints to whom this promise will be especially fulfilled, for it is they who realize that their battle is not with flesh and blood but with Satan and his evil forces.

13. What mystery is mentioned in verse 25? Ephesians 3:6.
14. Will man or God receive praise throughout eternity?

The Apostle Paul's first letter to Corinth was a letter of correction. Corinth was a city known for its moral looseness, and the church in Corinth was filled with babes in Christ who had not learned to walk in the Truth. The word "Corinth" means "ornament" which refers to the lack of genuine spiritual fruit from within. Many of the Corinthian saints wore their Christianity on the outside, as if it were an ornament or decoration to be put on and taken off at will.

All the troubles of present-day Christendom are outlined in this first epistle to the Corinthians, even as the cause of all her troubles is announced in 1:10- 13. These saints at Corinth had departed from the Truth of the Divine Headship of Jesus Christ. They had begun to take other heads, thus causing division and strife. Departure from this one Truth is the root cause of all the contention which we find in the Church today.

Chapter 7

INTRODUCTION

In the previous chapter the Apostle Paul instructed these saints concerning fornication. In chapter seven, he instructs the saints concerning God's remedy to this matter - marriage. There are many questions often asked concerning marriage, most of which can be answered from Paul's instructions in this chapter. We do well to remember that marriage, in itself, is a temporal relationship; however, the things that God works in our lives through this relationship can be eternal.

The instruction that Paul gives in this chapter is partly by direct command of the Lord (verse 10), and partly "by permission"- "as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful" (verses 6,12,25,40). Though

Paul is very careful to distinguish between the two, we must remember that - "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works" - II

Timothy 3:16,17.

Paul in this chapter, as he does throughout his epistles, seeks the good of the saints. He desires that we be free from all anxieties (verse 32) and able to "attend upon the Lord without distraction" (verse 35). Some are able to serve the Lord best in marriage, others unmarried. "Every man hath his proper gift of God" (verse 7).

Marriage, as we previously mentioned, is temporal; however, let us remember, that according to Scripture it is a type of the most beautiful of spiritual relationships - that of Christ and the Church. No other human relationship could so well express the intimacy that the Lord Jesus Christ desires with His people.

We find throughout the Scripture that the real spirit of Bridehood is submission. Let us, therefore, submit ourselves unto every leading of the Lord that we might reign with Him as His spotless glorious Bride.

I CORINTHIANS Chapter 11

This chapter deals with two main subjects. The first portion of this chapter sets forth the subjection of a wife unto her husband, which is shown forth by her long hair and her head covering. The second part of this chapter deals with communion or the partaking of the Lord's Supper.

In verse three, the Apostle Paul sets forth God's Divine order, yet there is a portion of this verse that is grossly misunderstood. Is the man the head of the woman? Many would read this verse and answer with an emphatic "yes". However, let us note what Paul is teaching here. He says, "The head of every man is Christ." However, is he telling us that every man is the head of every woman? If we translate this verse as found in the King James Version, then this is what Paul is teaching. However, we find that the Greek word "gyne," which is translated "woman," is also the same word used for "wife". Likewise, the Greek word "aner" which is translated "man" is also the same word used for "husband". Therefore, Paul is not speaking of men and women in the second portion of the verse, but rather of husbands and wives.

I am a man; however, I am not head over all women. I am the head of one woman, and she is my wife.

Another point which should be mentioned at this time is that I have headship over my wife from the natural or family standpoint. This headship does not carry over into the spiritual realm, for Christ is my wife's spiritual head. Ephesians 1:22- "...gave Him to be Head over all things to the church." Also, Colossians 1:18- "He is the Head of the Body, the Church." If my wife is saved, she is a part of the Church; and, therefore, as a part of the Church or Body of Christ, Christ is her spiritual Head. I am not lord or head over her spirit in any way. The Scripture does not teach that when husband and wife are made one, they are one spirit; but rather that they are "one flesh" - Genesis 2:24 and Ephesians 5:32. We do read, however, in I Corinthians 6:17 that "he that is joined unto the lord is one spirit." When we are joined to the Lord whether male or female, we become one spirit with Him; therefore, He becomes our spiritual Head.

I CORINTHIANS

Chapter 13

It would appear on the surface that the Apostle Paul has tired of his writing about the gifts; and, before going on into a deeper explanation of them, that he stops for a short period of time to teach us about love. However, this chapter is not placed here by accident; for Paul is not herein telling us how much greater love is than the gifts, neither is he giving us a written exposition on the subject of love. The subject of this chapter is not love, but rather a contrast between "the Gifts with Love" and "the Gifts without Love."

Many would attempt to use the teaching of this chapter to discredit the use of the Gifts today; however, when rightly divided, this chapter can only confirm that the Gifts of the Spirit are still needful and in full operation.

Introduction

In contrast to the Apostle Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians, which was primarily a letter of correction, his second epistle sets forth the life of a New Testament priest in sacrifice and service on behalf of the saints. Paul's great inward affection and care of all the churches is shown forth in this epistle.

Although Paul's great love for the saints cost him a life of sacrifice and suffering he reminds us in this epistle that, if we but continue to gaze upon the things unseen, all our afflictions work for us "a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory."

Introduction

The truth found in this book is fundamental to genuine spiritual growth; yet many of God's people never come to a realization of the truth contained herein.

Joshua chapter four sets forth, in spiritual type, the truth of our death and resurrection with Jesus Christ. To be free of legal bondage we must understand that His death was our death; His grave was our grave; His resurrection was our resurrection; and His life is our life. We stand before God on the merits of Calvary, not on the merits of our law-keeping, and not by the merits of personal or religious works.
